

2018

FLORIDA MUNICIPAL INVESTMENT TRUST SEMINARS

BEST PRACTICES: PROTECTING YOU AND YOUR SHORT-TERM ASSETS

Plant City – May 14 ▪ New Smyrna Beach – May 15 ▪ Oakland Park – May 17

Every municipality is investing short-term operating and reserve funds. Come learn directly from Federal Reserve Bank representatives on what factors you should consider to get the most from this investment. During this four-hour seminar, you will connect with professional money managers as we explore the current financial climate, share successful strategies for short-term investing, and provide best practices to safeguard you as a fiduciary. With three opportunities to learn, find the date and location that works best for you.

TIME: 10:00 a.m. - 2:00 p.m. Doors open at 9:30 a.m.

WHO: The seminar is designed for municipal finance and treasury professionals. Attendees will earn four hours of Technical Business credit.

COST: There is no cost to attend this seminar. Lunch will also be provided.

To register and for additional information, click or visit floridaleagueofcities.com/financial-services/investments.

For additional information about this event or to learn more FMIvT benefits, contact Jeff Blomeley at jblomeley@flcities.com or (850) 701-3614.

#FLCU