

FLC Center for Municipal Research & Innovation 8th Annual Summer Research Symposium Rethinking Homelessness: Formula for Transformational Solutions

Wednesday, August 14, 2019 | 8:00 a.m. - 1:00 p.m. | World Center Marriott | Orlando

An estimated 28,378 individuals and 43,592 families with children in Florida are homeless. Cities of all sizes share in the challenges of homelessness and have a significant role in efforts to end homelessness for their citizens. Learn about the different faces of your homeless population and the specific strategies needed to address the unique challenges facing each group.

This research symposium is designed for city managers, community housing and development staff, and elected leaders. The event is free for League members and research partners, but pre-registration is required.
